

Account administrator permissions (snippet)

For invited users:

Before your account was created, your account administrator decided the proper roles and permissions for your account.

Consult with your account administrator to understand what permissions you have and how you should configure your account.

You can use this document to complete the account signup process and review high-level action items to complete.